

SINCE 1952

333 WEST 39TH STREET

333 WEST 39TH STREET

Built in 1929 by the architects Shampán & Shampán, the building at 333 West 39th Street rises over 14 stories. Originally erected as a loft building, 333 West 39th Street has since been completely renovated to provide 105,000 square feet of quality loft-style commercial office space. The modernized building lobby is attended seven days a week and offers keycard access for convenient and secure access at all hours of the day.

Building spaces feature high ceilings, polished concrete floors and tenant controlled central A/C, offering an ideal open work environment for all tenants alike. Spaces offer sub-metered electric and the building is pre-wired with high-speed CAT 6 internet, telecommunications and data services to suit all business' technology needs.

Situated in the historic Fashion District and the newly defined Times Square South, the building is close to numerous area amenities; whether it be various retail opportunities or dining selections, the area has it all. With excellent transportation links close by, including Times Square-42nd Street station, Port Authority Bus Terminal, Penn Station, Madison Square Garden and Pier 79 Ferry Terminal, the building's location makes for easy access to come or go.

TIMES SQUARE

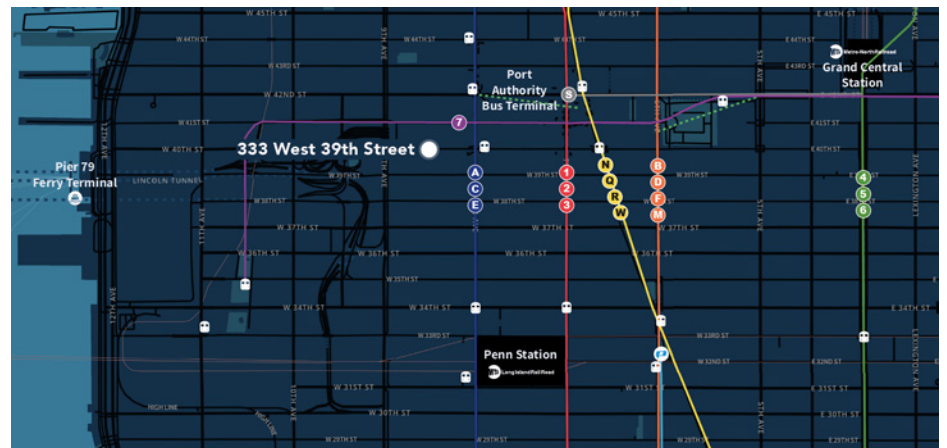

Times Square lies at the heart of the commuter triangle, marked by Penn Station, Grand Central Station and Port Authority Terminal. Situated between Fifth Avenue and Ninth Avenue, from 34th to 42nd Streets, this area is also known as the Fashion District. It has rich history as home to showrooms, fashion design and production houses, as well as garment wholesalers. Well-known labels like Carolina Herrera, Calvin Klein and Donna Karan among others all maintain a collection of showrooms, production centers and offices in the area.

Even with its rich history in fashion, the economics of manufacturing have changed over the years, so the district has seen an influx of other businesses, including media, creative agencies, law firms and tech. Even so, local sample sales still prove popular with workers and residents.

Art plays a vital role in the area with Space for Public Art – a street-level space for local artists and designers to grab the attention of passers-by – and Bene Rialto, featuring emerging brands, an educational co-working space and experiential event space. For a mix of art and café culture, MacarOn Café and Café Grumpy are popular destinations.

For mainstream retail all needs are met at 34th Street and Herald Square. Bryant Park to the east offers open space and seating to meet and relax, alongside the stunning New York Public Library's main building and its 50 million-plus catalog.

The major transportation hubs at Penn Station and Times Square serve the Fashion District, with access to 1,2,3,A,C,E,N,Q,R and W trains, plus connection to New Jersey Transit, Amtrak, and Long Island Rail Road. Metro-North Railroad can be accessed from Grand Central Terminal.

Committed to building a better New York since 1952, GFP Real Estate is a vertically integrated owner, operator, property manager and developer of commercial real estate in the New York Tri-State Region. With over 50 buildings and more than 11 million square feet under Ownership, GFP's portfolio includes some of the City's most iconic real estate assets, including the Flatiron Building (175 Fifth Avenue), The Film Center Building (630 Ninth Avenue), 515 Madison Avenue, 1560 Broadway and 40 Worth Street. In addition to managing and leasing its own properties, GFP also provides management and leasing services to third-party building owners, representing an additional 22 buildings that cover more than 4 million square feet. The combined GFP portfolio of both owned and managed properties totals 72 buildings and approximately 16 million square feet, cementing the firm's reputation as one of New York City's premiere real estate owners and operators.

Helmed by three generations of the Gural family over six decades, the company is steeped in the tradition of doing business the family way. GFP Real Estate delivers unparalleled service to their over 2,500 tenants, one-third of which are not-for-profits. The company employs more than 600 full-time professionals to oversee every element of real estate management. Their dedication results in a remarkable 90% tenant renewal rate and 99% occupancy rate.
