

SINCE 1952

16 WEST 22ND STREET

16 WEST 22ND STREET

Constructed in 1910 by the architect William Harvey Birkmire, this 12-story neo-Renaissance store and loft building - characteristic of the later development phase of this district - extends through the middle of the block and has two virtually identical facades of terracotta, stone, and buff-colored brick. It replaced four 4-story residences with basements once used as boarding houses.

Located in the historic Flatiron District, the building boasts 165,000 square feet of commercial and retail space. On the ground floor, one can find the highly coveted, Michelin starred Korean Steakhouse Kote. The building is conveniently situated near multiple subway transportation hubs as well as extensive shopping and dining - including the vibrant Eataly NYC Flatiron - and the open space of Madison Square Park.

FLATIRON DISTRICT

The district is named after the world renowned Flatiron Building, situated at the crossroads of Fifth Avenue and Broadway at 23rd Street. The Flatiron district is bound by Union Square to the south, 23rd Street to the north, and reaches west to Sixth Avenue and east to Park Avenue South.

This iconic neighborhood offers an abundance of amenities for many area workers and residents. From the open space of Madison Square Park – and the very first Shake Shack that still has lines forming nearly 15 years since the first humble summer cart was replaced with a permanent kiosk – to high-end eateries and much in between, it is a foodie's paradise.

For something ultra-smart, diners at Eleven Madison Park, named the Best Restaurant in the World in 2017, sample 3-star Michelin cuisine from Chef-owner Daniel Humm. For similarly polished execution in a more relaxed yet extremely stylish setting, Mexico's leading chef Enrique Olvera has been wowing diners since 2014 at Cosme, which also made the top 50 list. Other go-to destinations include Jean-Georges Vongerichten's ABC kitchen with locally sourced farm-to-table offerings and Gramercy Tavern.

Another famous chef making his mark in the area is Mario Batali. Eataly, the original location of his famed Italian market with offerings through morning to night, keeps the lunch crowd and late-night diners happy with restaurants, counters, cafés and the market.

There are numerous high-profile tenants in the area including Credit Suisse, Yelp, Sony and Tiffany's.

Transport connections include N, Q, R, W trains at 23rd Street and Fifth Avenue, 4 and 6 trains from 23rd / Park Avenue South and PATH service from 23rd / Sixth Avenue.
