150 BAY STREET

150 BAY STREET

In the Powerhouse Arts District, 150 Bay Street, a landmark loft building listed on the Federal Register of Historic Places, embodies the true artist/luxury loft experience and is the ideal place to work, live and play.

Built in 1908 as a warehouse by the architect Howard Chapman, the property was converted to residential, commercial and retail spaces in the 21st century. Interiors feature open floor plans, 14' high ceilings, over-sized windows offering abundant natural light, and historic, architectural detail that all distinguish 150 Bay Street as a premiere luxury loft community to work or live. Further amenities include polished concrete floors and fully equipped kitchens with granite counter tops and brand new appliances to complement spaces that are ideal for entertaining.

Conveniently located just minutes from Manhattan via the PATH train or NY Waterway Ferry, and surrounded by burgeoning restaurants, bars and retailers, Jersey City has become a desirable alternative to Manhattan with 150 Bay Street offering all that is needed for a truly modern, luxurious and convenient lifestyle.

NEW JERSEY

Clearly seen from Manhattan over the expanse of the Hudson, Jersey City and Hoboken have, over the last decade, established themselves as premier destinations to work and to live.

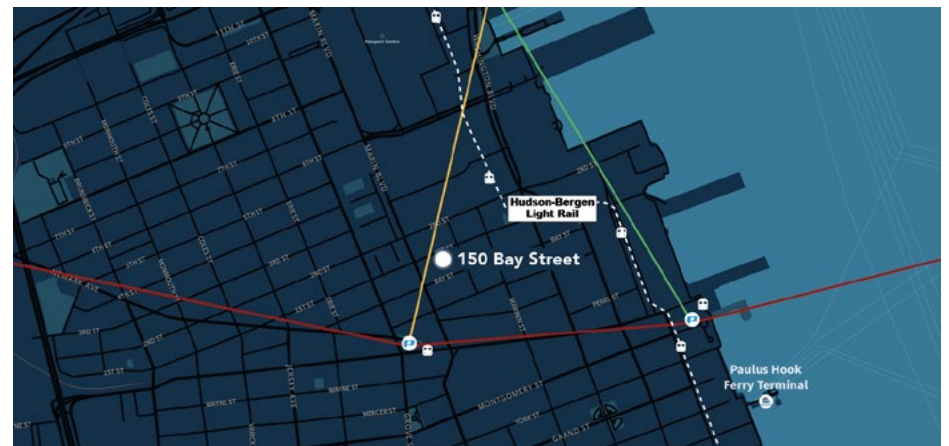

The major regeneration of the Jersey waterfront began in the early 2000s with the building of Goldman Sachs Tower on Hudson Street, home to the famous financial institution and shared with the Royal Bank of Canada. The tower is a beacon on the horizon, joined with the Colgate Clock just to its south as landmarks familiar to anyone looking over the water.

Numerous financial powerhouses have bases at Exchange Place and in the surrounding district, including J. P. Morgan, Citigroup, Bank of America and PwC – as well as Forbes Magazine. The area along the water, from Exchange Place to Newport, quickly gained the nickname of Wall Street West.

Among the mirrored-glass towers and handsome brick, mid-rise commercial buildings and large residential complexes have been built and continue to be developed, catering to an influx of young professionals seeking luxury living with stunning views at an affordable price.

Jersey City has several shopping districts including Central Avenue, Danforth Avenue and the West Side area. Other retail hubs include Newport Mall and Journal Square, with Loew's Jersey Theater, dating from the 1920s.

Fast transport links are provided by PATH service from Exchange Place, connecting Jersey City to the World Trade Center transportation hub, Hoboken, and Newark Penn Station. The Hudson Bergen Light Rail has three stations at Harborside Financial Center, Essex Street and Exchange Place, where transfer to PATH service and ferry is possible.

ABOUT OWNERSHIP

Committed to building a better New York since 1952, GFP Real Estate is a vertically integrated owner, operator, property manager and developer of commercial real estate in the New York Tri-State Region. With over 55 buildings and more than 12.8 million square feet under Ownership, GFP's portfolio includes some of the City's most iconic real estate assets, including the Flatiron Building (175 Fifth Avenue), The Film Center Building (630 Ninth Avenue), 515 Madison Avenue, 1560 Broadway and 40 Worth Street.
